

St. Francis Youth attending DCYC

Stay in touch with what information we have to offer and any last minute instructions or forms that are needed for you to attend. We have started a news feed specifically for SFG DCYC 2009 attendees on Flocknote.com. This is a Catholic based service provided for free to Catholic ministries to assist in communication. You must be 14 to register or get a parent to register for you and stay in touch with your parent. The feed will be private and only open/visible to those that subscribe and are approved by the administrators. It is intended for only those attending DCYC with St. Francis Grapevine.

FLOCKNOTE.COM has some similarities to Facebook without the concerns of Facebook, but especially it will have only Catholic advertising to support the service. It is more of a news feed than a social environment. The best part of this service is that a note can be posted on the feed's page and it is automatically supplied to everyone that subscribes to the feed. You will automatically receive this to your email, but can set it up to work with your txt messaging, facebook or other possibilities in the future. You decide and control how you want and when to receive notifications. If you need to reply to a note on the feed then you can follow a link in your email or by logging on FLOCKNOTE.COM.

This will be a great way for us to get the latest information out and especially last minute information. You will be able to find any questions and answers as we go along.

Just go to Flocknote.com and sign up for free. Identify that you are a part of the Fort Worth Diocese and the parish of St Francis in Grapevine and then you can subscribe to the feed thru the parish. An easier way to lead you thru to the subscription is to provide your email address when you sign up and we will send you an invitation that will get you started in the right direction. If you have any questions on how to get thru the subscription process please contact Patrick & June McMahon - mcmahonpe@msn.com or 972-724-2124
